The Holstein Black Pirates concluded their 1959 season with the Maple Valley conference championship. The Pirates were defeated in the first game of the season by Alta 27 to 7. This game was non-conference. Coming to the next game, Holstein swamped Moville 34 to 0. Onawa won over the Pirates by a score of 14 to 13. This game was also non-conference. Logan fell to Holstein by a score of 28 to 0 on the local gridiron. This game was postponed once because of bad weather.

Marcus was the second biggest game of the year and Holstein won 7 to 6 on the local field. A fine exhibition of playing was shown in this game. Neither team scored during the second half of this game. Correctionville fell to the Pirates with the score ending 48 to 7. The Kingsley game was the highlight of the season. Until the time they played, both teams were undefeated. This game would decide the conference champion. The Pirates, from the very first of the game, held the upper hand. They played very good ball and made an impressive victory with the score 41 to 19. Due to adverse weather conditions, the final game of the season was cancelled, making the game an automatic forfeit.

The Pirates concluded a most remarkable season, one that will be remembered by them for some time. Memories of winning the Maple Valley Conference once more will stand with them for some time.

THE RECORD

Holstein	0	Aureha	19
Holstein	13	Odebolt	0
Holstein	18	Storm Lake	20
Holstein	33	Kingsley	0

The Holstein "B" squad got off to a bad start in the 1959 season. They were beaten by Aureha 19 to 0. The next game with Odebolt proved to be a very rugged defensive battle. Holstein allowed them only three first downs the whole game and came out on top 13 to 0.

The next game with Storm Lake, which was played on the local field, was very exciting. Holstein led all the way until the last seconds of the fourth quarter. The Tornadoes took the kick-off and went the distance for the winning touchdown. The game ended 18 to 20. The last game of the season with the Kingsley Bombers, was the highlight of the season, the "Little Pirates" came out on top 33 to 0.

The Holstein Black Pirates were very successful through the 1959-1960 basketball season, winning 16 games and losing 7. The Pirates first six averaged 6'1" in height and scored an average of 61.2 points a game while their opponents scored 51.1 points a game. The shooting percentage was 40.6 per cent for field goals and 54.4 per cent for free throws. The great height of the Pirates came in handy and they grabbed 1121 rebounds to their opponents' 727.

The Pirates opened their season on the wrong foot when they lost to Aurelia 51 to 71. They bounced right back and won the next three games, but then they were defeated by Anthon-Oto by three points. The Pirates won the next three games with Danbury, Cville, and Battle Creek but were stopped by Lake View and Quimby. They came back to beat Mapleton and Merville by margins of 67 to 42 and 93 to 48. In the Maple Valley Tournament Holstein defeated Merville and Marcus but lost the championship game to Anthon-Oto. The Pirates won 4 out of their last 5 regular season games. In the first round of the sectional tournament the Pirates upset the Braves of Cherokee 59 to 60. In the second round they defeated Alta 81 to 59, while in the regular season Holstein won by 1 point. In the final round of the tournament the Pirates could not keep up with a strong Storm Lake squad and lost 48 to 54.

B* SQUAD

The Holstein second team ended another season of play with 10 wins and four losses.

The team's total number of points for the year was 415, with a team average of 34.6 points a game. The total number of points scored by the team was 415. A total of 89 points was scored over the rival teams this year.

Many of the boys on the "B" squad showed much improvement this year and will be a great aid to the regular varsity team next year.

"Girls Are Like That"

Virginia Poole patiently awaits the time when ~~her fiancé~~ Tommy Davis, returns home from college for their marriage that Aunt Jane has for years been ~~planning~~ planning for the two. When Tommy wires home that he has decided against marriage, things ~~begin to turn out~~ turn out Mary Jane, Virginia's little sister, 'fixes' another marriage with a famous radio announcer, Jack Everett, whom Virginia has never met.

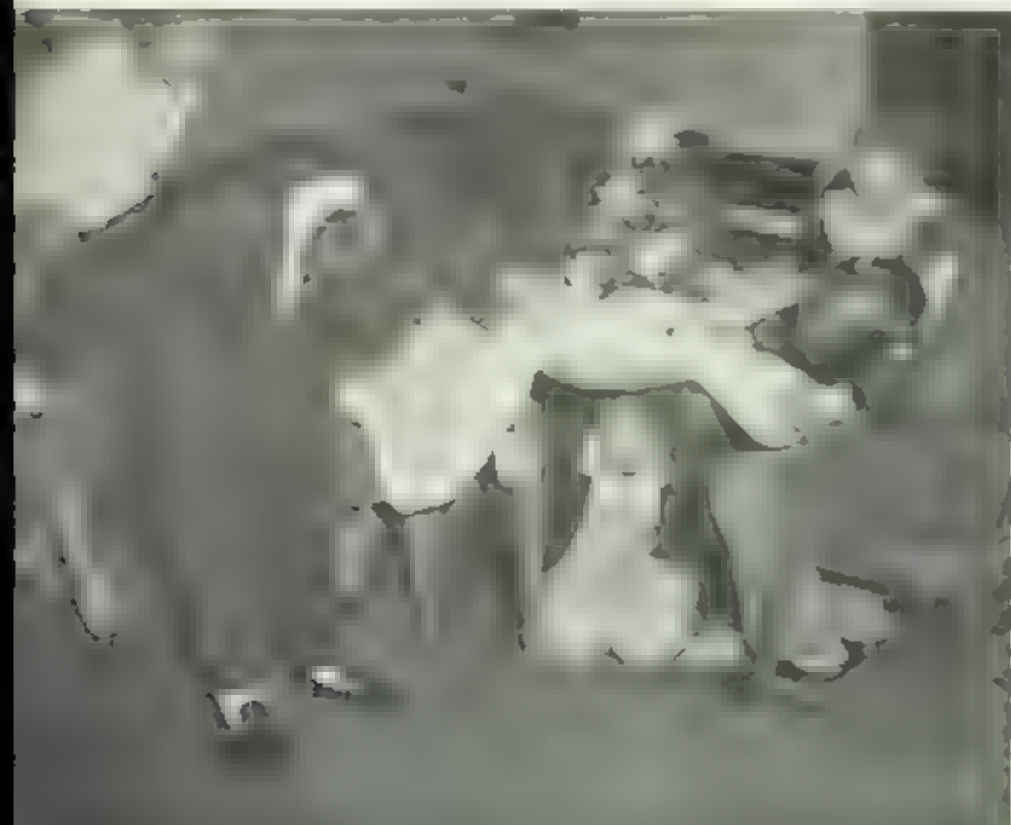

There is more help than is really needed when Lillian Root, a helpful girl friend, also arranges for Virginia a marriage with Lillian's find, a new boy, Jimmy Shields, from Chicago. Everyone is trying to help Virginia to pose as a girl ready for a successful marriage. (Aunt Jane has promised a large sum of money to Virginia on her marriage.)

The play becomes very exciting and hilarious when Virginia tries to pose with two fiancés and then when Tommy Davis finally decides to return home to the marriage. There is much confusion and ~~entertainment~~ but the audience finally sees that Virginia ~~ends up~~ ends up with Jack Everett just before Aunt Jane sprains her ankle, and Mary Jane is chastized for her meddlesome pranks.

A black and white photograph of a large group of people, likely a choir or a formal group, posing in two rows. The front row is seated, and the back row is standing. They are dressed in formal attire, including suits and dresses. The group is composed of approximately 20 individuals, with a mix of men and women. The setting appears to be indoors, possibly in a hall or a large room. The photograph is slightly faded and has a vintage feel.

The play was in a school called Hudson and the cast members all portrayed seniors. Eugene P.

HOMECOMING

At 8:00 p. m. on October 8 the 1959 Homecoming festivities at Holstein High School began. The evening's show consisted of a series of pep skits presented by the various high school classes.

The first skit, presented by the sophomores and also the prize winning skit for originality, was entitled the Night Before Homecoming, and was very amusing and enjoyable. The freshmen presented the second skit, portraying a hilarious group of spectators at the Holstein Marcus football game. Next was the skit presented by the senior class which was a replica of the TV show, Person to Person, and staged an interview with Coach Krasl and his family. Last, but not least, was the skit presented by the juniors, entitled, The Mummy, which was also enjoyed immensely. The second part of the program featured several of the Holstein High School music groups. Those performing were the dance band, mixed chorus, and boys' and girls' glee clubs. The music was especially chosen to supplement a narrative reading and provided a large amount of enjoyable listening entertainment.

Finally, and perhaps the most spectacular part of the program was the coronation of the royalty. The royalty entered the auditorium through an aisle of chorus members holding lighted candles. They then walked to the stage where each member of the royalty took his or her place to be presented and crowned.

Tom Keitges was crowned King of the 1959 Homecoming and Marina Christiansen was crowned Queen. The Junior Prom Committee, consisting of Fred Krasl and Corey Krasl, presented the king and queen with crowns. The king and queen were Jerry Jochims and Mary Mohr. The royalty was serenaded by the dance band and left the stage to the music of Holstein High School's coronation song.

The next day, Friday, October 9, at 7:30 p. m. the pep assembly guest speaker, Mr. Bernie Samson, addressed the students in a rousing speech and led the football team through the fight to a decisive 16 victory over Marcus. It was a most successful evening.

At the halftime of the game, the Homecoming game, the pep assembly was again presented to the spectators.

After the game that evening the pep council sponsored a dance at the Holstein High School gymnasium. The festivities of the 1959 Holstein High School Homecoming.

Junior-Senior Prom

At 7:00 p.m. Apr. 22, the date of the 1960 Junior-Senior Prom, the navy prefects started working to see the beautiful decorations which the senior class had created under the theme "Under the Sea".

As one entered the auditorium from the northwest he passed in front of the mural of a large whale. If entering from the southwest entrance one would pass under the tail of the large whale that almost covered the entire west side of the decorated auditorium.

Continuing eastward from the tail of the whale to the south one could enter a small cave with a very beautifully painted mural on the entrance and framed by fish along the sides.

Earlier next was the refreshment and lounge area in the frame of a mural of a sunken ship and decorated with aqua tape paper and many more beautiful decorations.

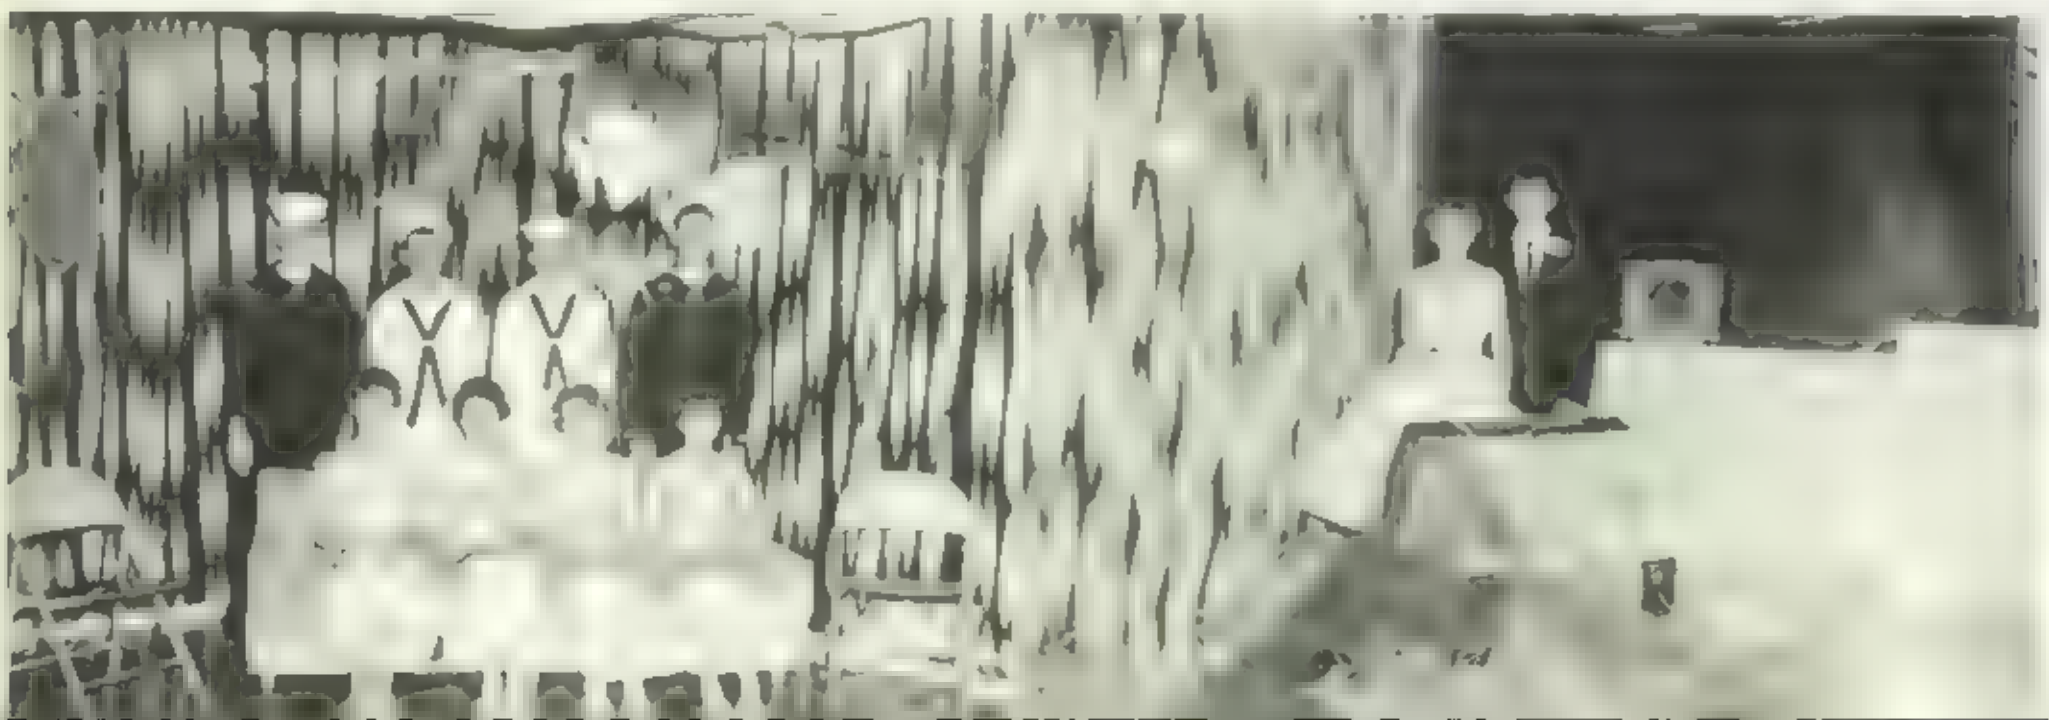

On the stage was seated the Henry C. Jones Junior Orchestra. A large auditorium floor was stage to the gym floor. To the north of the stage was placed a large sea chest filled with various treasures.

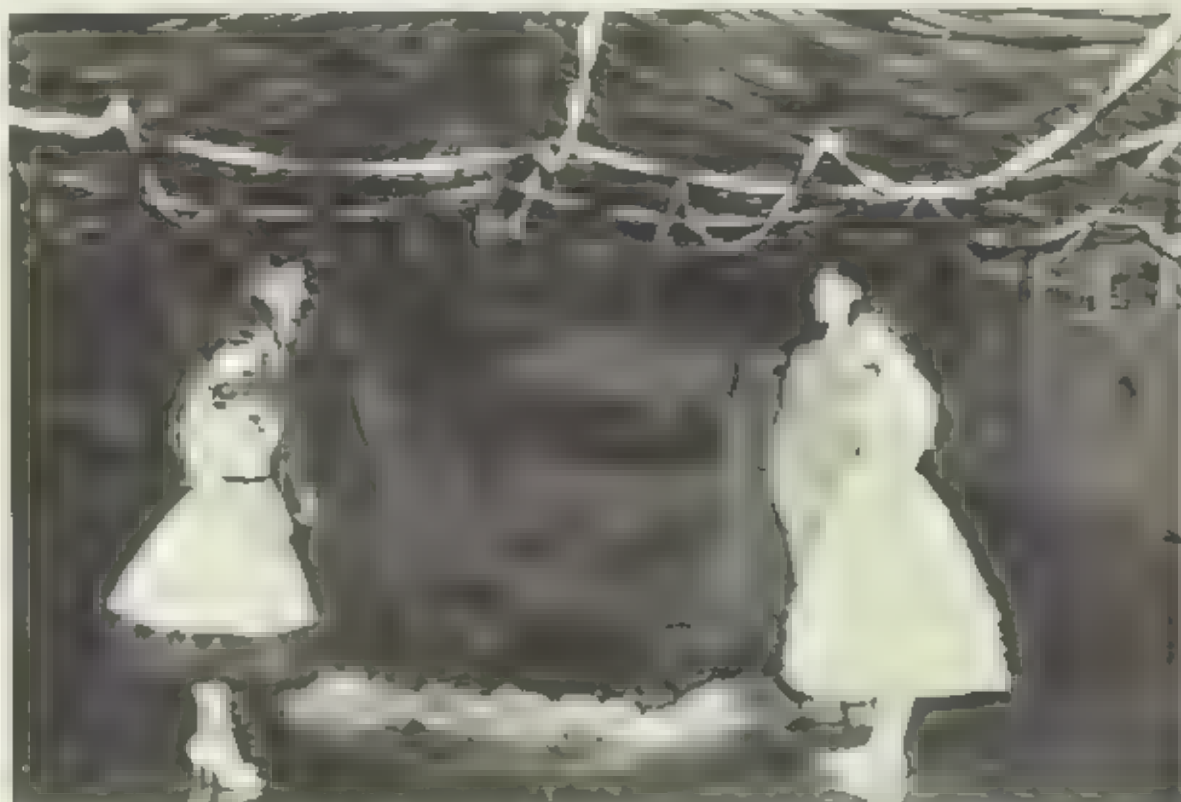

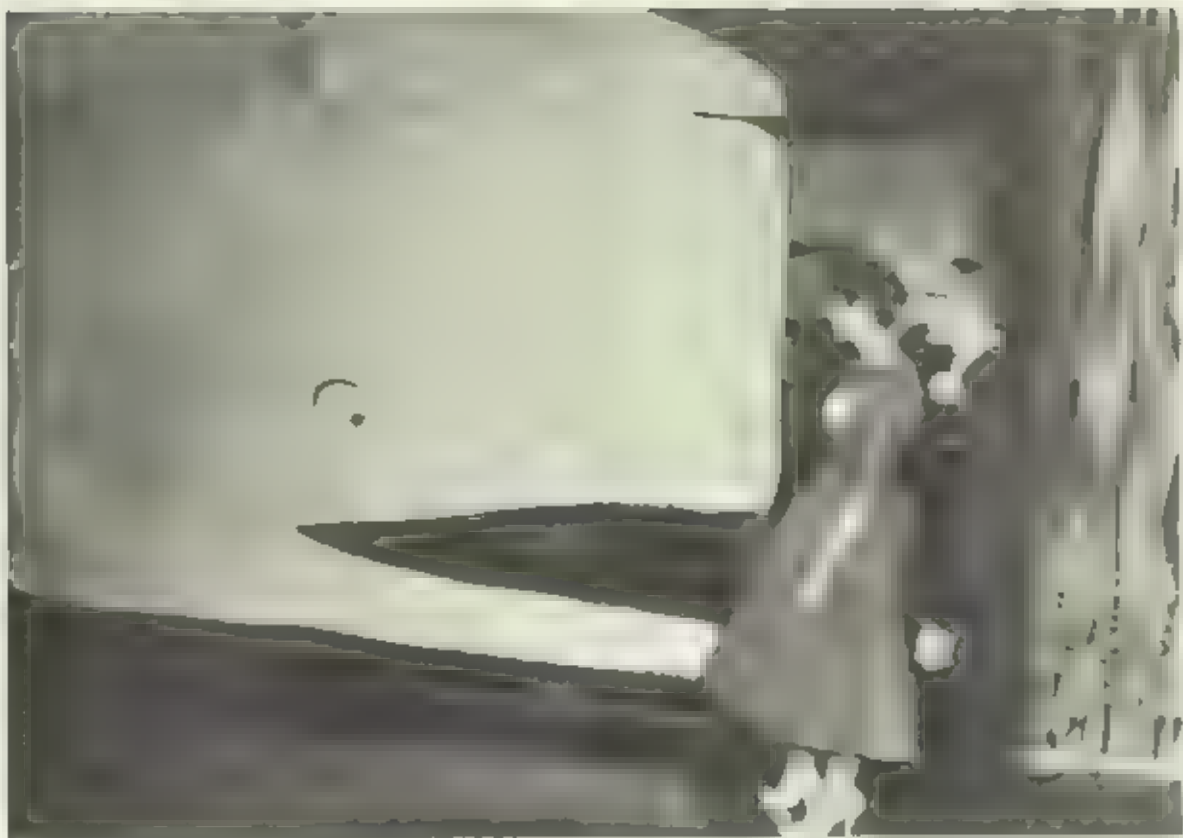

To the west of the mouth of the whale was another decorated area for dancing. From the west end of the dancing area at the location was the very large black orchestra in the center of the dance floor with eight moving lights and two large speakers.

The dancing began at 8:30 with the use of signed dance programs and tickets. At 11:00 when Tom Kedges and Marvin Christensen were crowned Prince and Princess of the 1960 Junior-Senior Prom, Tom received a 16 clasp and cut glass and Princess Marvin received a big diamond necklace and ring and a large bouquet.

The dancing continued until 12:00 when the eventful evening of the prom ended. The couples then went to the gymnasium to dance the night away. The couples were very entertained with a dance. Later the party moved to the Leona Hall for a very delicious break.

The Junior-Senior Prom at HHS was an event that will be long remembered in the minds of the juniors and seniors of HHS.

Senior Skip Day

On Wednesday, May 18, thirty-four seniors left for Omaha by chartered bus at 6:30 a. m. Upon reaching their destination, their first stop was the Union Pacific Museum. Here they saw many interesting relics of the old railroad days

Their next stop was the Omaha Airport where they watched planes reload and take off. Also, they visited the control tower

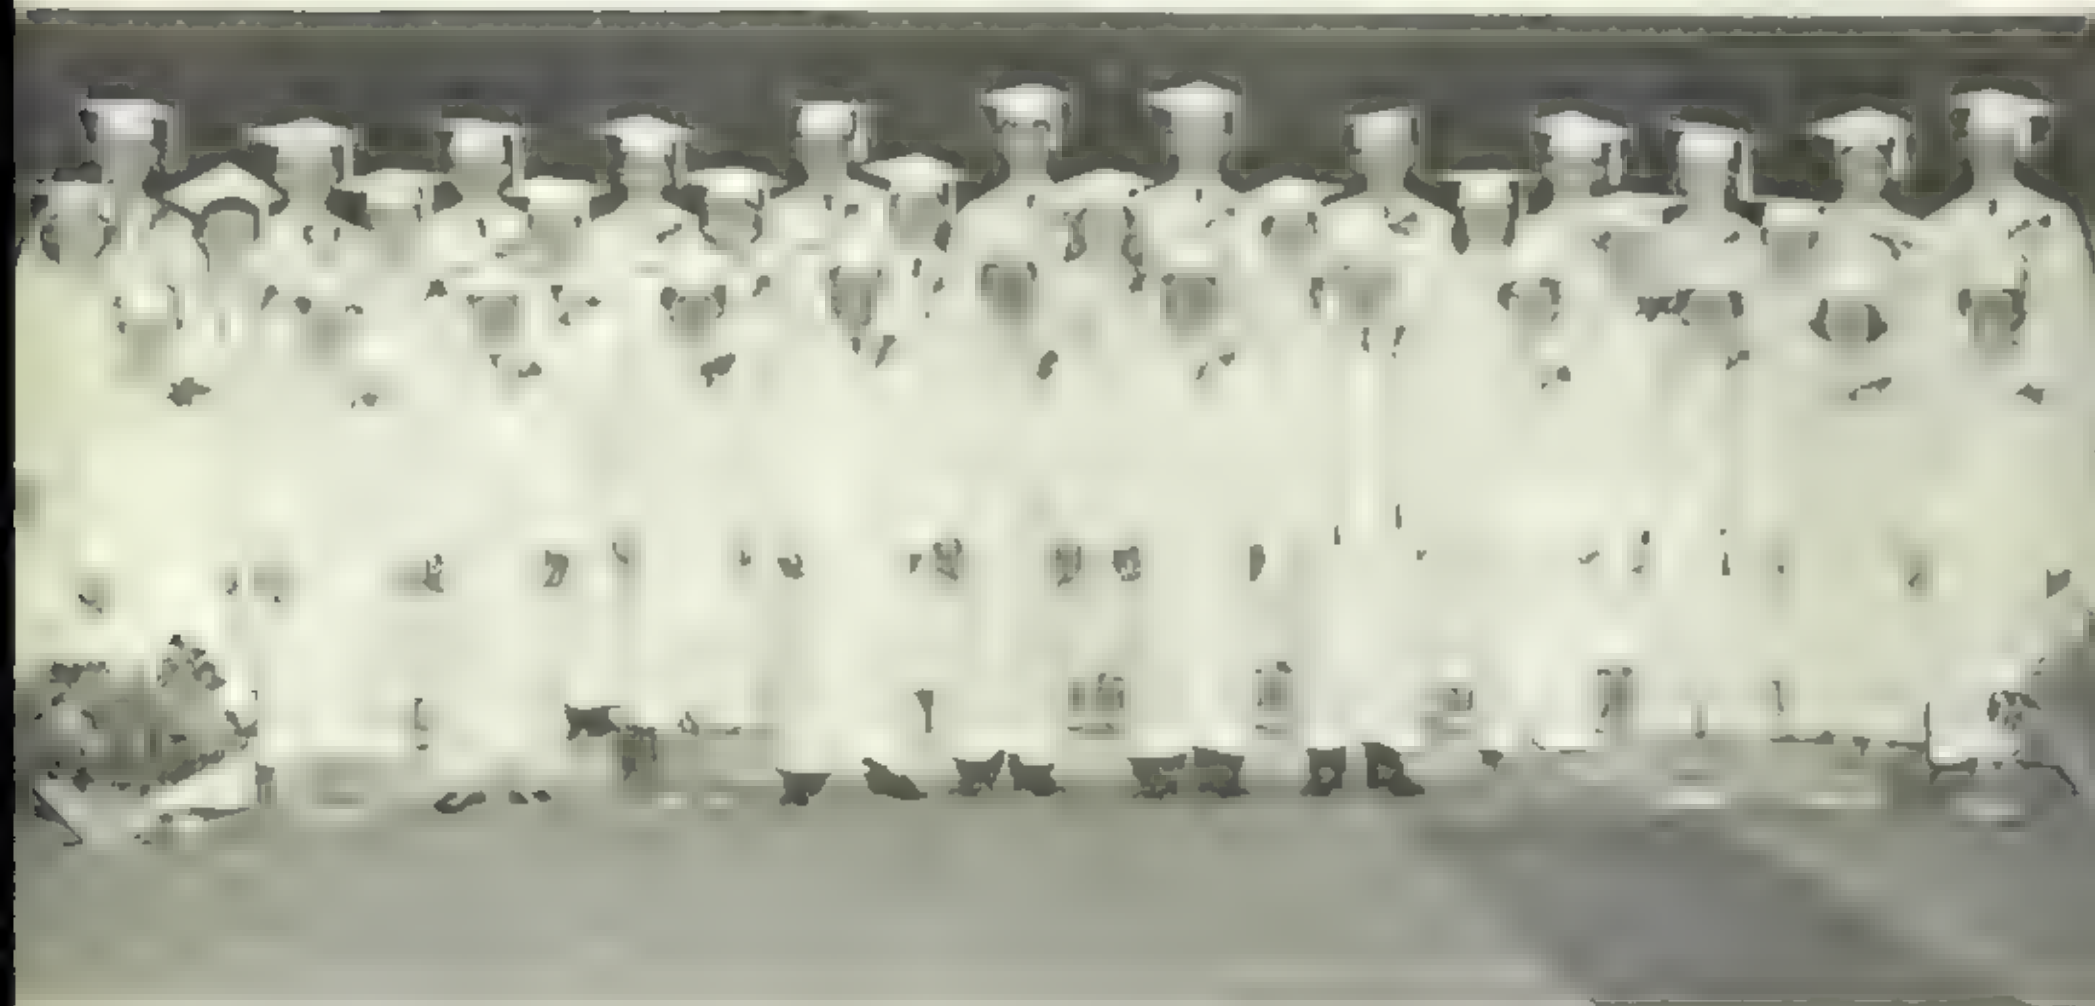

After lunch they went to Boy's Town. Here they saw the boys learning different trades, the gymnastic facilities, and the chapel. The seniors found Boy's Town to be interesting and educational.

Upon returning to the city, they had one half-hour to shop. Then they returned home, stopping at the Biltmore at Sioux City for supper. They arrived home feeling very tired but with many pleasant memories of their exciting day.

CONFERRING OF DIPLOMAS

Sponsored by STATE THEATRE and HANSEN FURNITURE and FUNERAL HOME

With fond memories of the past and dreams of the future we, the Class of 1960, pause to express a sincere "thank you" to Mr. Harland and Mr. Gerber, our class sponsors, and to everyone who has helped to make the publication of our Yearbook possible. To the end of an era—to "old" HHS, which has served this community for forty-three years—we, the seniors, say, "Farewell."
